

Rewrites on Sonic #10

Story 1: Nerdy Elves (Formerly "Revenge of the Nerbs") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Sonic and Tails were enjoying some time with Sally on South Island in the Mobius of the Sky. Soon, King Max called in the three and told them, "I have just received a distress signal from the Nerd Elves in the Mobius of Darkness. Eggman is now trying to turn them into Badniks!" Sonic said, "We're on it!" Sonic, Tails, and Sally got Antoine, Bunnie, and Rotor to aid them as they traveled into the Mobius of Darkness. The king guided them via communicator to where the Nerd Elves lived. The Nerd Elves lived in a network of caves, but Eggman and his cronies were tearing them apart.

Once in the caves, the team found Metal Sonic capturing Nerd Elves and turning them into Badniks. The chief of the Nerd Elves was turned into a Super Badnik known as Plasma Brain. Plasma Brain's special attack was called "Dendrite Spark". Sonic dodged the sparks as he fought the Brain, but soon he needed help. Bunnie magically summoned her cyborg armor, and she and Tails joined the fight, while the others fought the other Badniks. Soon, Plasma Brain was defeated, and the ball of energy released changed into the Nerd Elf Chief. Sonic and friends joined the elves in a celebration. Since they were Nerd Elves, the celebration was rather peculiar, but it was nice to know that they were happy to be free.

Story 2: Balloon Loonies (Formerly "Twan With The Wind") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Antoine invited Sonic and his friends to ride his new hot air balloon. They decided to take him up on it. Eggman noticed their ride and decided to attack. Eggman sent out his Buzzbombers to attack it. Soon, the Buzzbombers used their stinger lasers to pop the balloon and sent them crashing on a jungle island on the Mobius of the Sky. Sally said, "If we are ever to go back in the sky and face the Buzzbombers, we need to fix the balloon!" Everyone else nodded and decided to find some means to make repairs. Tails used some sacks to gather sand from the beach and make sandbags. Bunnie used her magic (she was still normal- no cyborg armor) to make some fuel for heat. The others searched for survival supplies (food, water, etc.) and weapons for when they get back up in the air.

Once back in the air, Antoine piloted the balloon, while Sonic, carried by Tails, helped fight off the Buzzbombers. Antoine and friends fought off the Buzzbombers that got too close to the Balloon, and Sonic and Tails took care of Buzzbombers that were coming. All Buzzbombers gave up their captives when destroyed. After a while of flying around, they decided to go home and relax.
